3/18-24 PRINCE GEORGE TO PRINCE RUPERT SPRING SKI TRIP:

This region came to my attention several years ago on a summer ferry and bus tour where we traveled from Seattle up to Port Hardy on Vancouver Island, took the Inside Passage to the Coast Range north, then drove east and south through this remote northern part of British Columbia. The terrain and open native vegetation seemed perfect for hiking and Nordic skiing here. Since that time I have been looking for the right opportunity to introduce a group to this part of BC. This year Prince George is slated to host the world Paralympic Nordic Skiing events, and for this event will be improving their already extensive cross country ski capabilities. In 2015 they hosted the Canadian Winter Games. They have over 50 km. of competition level tracks, night skiing, snowshoe routes and Day Lodge facilities. Then there is the extensive tour skiing available here including: Cottonwood Island, Moore's Meadow, Otway Ski Trails operated by Caledonia Ski Club, Tabor Mt. ski area and W. Lake Provincial Park to name just a few others. From here we will travel west toward the coast range through Fort Fraser, Smithers Kitwanga and hopefully to Prince Rupert. Smithers is called by some the Cross Country Capitol of the North because of their dedicated ski community. With over 10% of the residents here members of the local ski club the winter focus is all about skiing. We will spend part of the week here and travel west toward the Coast Range before returning home through Prince George. Perhaps one of the best parts about this trip is that Air North serves the area. For those who were not on the Whitehorse trip with us last year, ask about the old world service (and warm chocolate chip cookies) on our plane ride there. Provided: airfare, transit, lodging. Dates 3/18-24 Cost $1,377
