TAHOMA TRAILS DAY TRIP

Without a doubt the trails and cabins of the Mt. Tahoma Trails Association system have the best Mt. Rainier views available anywhere, perhaps shy only of a tent pitched on the 14,411' summit. Last year we skied into the system from the variable elevation snowparks in the north district. In mid season with the great low altitude snowpack we had in 2008, we did not have enough time in the day to get all the way to the views from our low altitude starting point. This year's trip is scheduled for early season with the hope that we can get all the way to the ridge top hut. The hut is open during the day so bring a tea bag with you, and we can stop for tea and biscuits and bask in the glow (or shadow) of Mt. Rainier for lunch. They do groom the trails here but preseason it is not a safe bet that this will be done on a regular schedule. Provided: transit, maps.
